By taking it at home ne manneed be the wiser as to another's short-comings, and expensive fees are avoided.

Lack of poise and equilibrium in men is a constant source of embarrassment even when the public least snapects it. For the benefit of those who want a restoration to full, bounding health, and all the happiness accompanying it, let it be stated that the prescription calls only for three-grain Cadomeric tablets, in sealed tubes with full directions for self-administration. The tablets contribute opinions or habit-forming drugs so g physician's prescription is not necessary. Well stocked pharmacles supply these tablets which possess the most wonderful tonic—intigorating powers linaginable.
